

COLLINSVILLE POLLEN TRAIL

“Flowers and Birds and Bees, Oh My!”

Saturday, June 24, 10-1 pm

Karen Berger and Holly Hambleton invite you to walk the section of the rail trail between Dyer Ave. and Maple Ave. and see our “knotweed to native” transformation. Along with other Master Gardeners and Master Gardener Interns we will be on hand to answer questions.

Join a group or meander on your own.

Canton resident Lisa Newell of Rewild Native Plant Nursery will also be available to offer her expertise on native plants and creating pollinator gardens specific to our area.

LOCATION:

3 through 22 Allen Place from Dyer Ave. to Maple Ave. Adjacent to Farmington River Rail Trail. Park in dirt parking lot at 6 Dyer Ave. Do not interfere with construction beyond the tape.

ADMISSION: Free

CPT partners: Uconn Master Gardener Program, Town of Canton DPW and Canton Land Conservation Trust.
